- Capital Campaign
  - Over $122 million is raised during the capital campaign, which is complete in February 2013 (and celebrated in the brand new Gheens Foundation Lodge). All of the funds will be spent on construction by spring of 2016.
- Phase One
- Phase Two & Three
  - The first portion of the Louisville Loop within The Parklands opens in November 2012. The rest of Beckley Creek park, as well as all of Pope Lick Park, open for public use in September 2013.
- Phase Four
  - In July of 2013, construction begins on the final phase, including The Strand, Turkey Run, and Broad Run Parks. Turkey Run Park opens to the public in October of 2015. The entire park system will be open in Spring 2016.
- 21st Century Parks Inc. serves as stewards entrusted to create and preserve unexcelled parklands that reflect the needs and values of our whole community.
- Future Fund begins preserving land along Floyds Fork.
- Frederick Law Olmsted comes to Kentucky to design one of his masterpieces: the Louisville parks system.
- By relearning what Olmsted taught us in the 1890s, a vision for the future development of Louisville is born.
