The Great Parklands Scavenger Hunt

Beckley Creek Park

#1

Nearly extinct, this enclosure contains a magnificent species of trees. In the 20th century, they were decimated by a deadly disease. Now only saplings can grow. Here, you’ll find a few planted in a row.

#2

As the river winds its way through the park, at this point, it curves around in an arc. It’s a pleasant spot for an afternoon snack, and this scenic spot is marked with a plaque.

#3

This large field at the center of the park is a great place to spend a day. Named after its shape, there’s plenty of space to run, jump, and play. In the middle, there’s a “crack” rife with tall trees. At the edge of this crack, you’ll spot the Scavenger Hunt Icon, along with your next clue with ease.

#4

At this spot you’ll find a glimpse into the park’s not-so-distant past. Years ago, at this spot, farmers kept their livestock amassed. While today people come to the park to explore, this red building shows what stood here before.

#5

This part of the river is remarkably “flat.” If you’re seeking a fossil here, you’ll find just that. The picnic tables are a nice place for a snack, but hike down the short trail, and you won’t want to hike back.
